Research Oral Presentation Preparation Checklist:

The following sheet must be used to help you in preparation for your research presentation. If you are not prepared to go the day of your talk, you will lose 2 points for each day you are late. Exceptions will be made of course if you are sick and out of school that day. If that happens, you must be prepared to go the day you return. Please verify with your parents that your day is not one on which you already have an appointment!
